INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made between Bright Harbour Studio Ltd ("Client") and the contractor named in the Statement of Work ("Contractor").

1. SERVICES AND INDEPENDENCE

Contractor shall provide the services described in the Statement of Work attached as Schedule A. Contractor determines the method, hours and location of its work, is not subject to Client's internal policies, and may provide services to other clients provided it discloses any direct competitor named in writing for this project.

2. FEES, DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT

Client shall pay the fixed fee stated in Schedule A. A deposit of 40% of the fee is due on signature and before Contractor starts, and the balance is due within 14 days of the invoice date. Payment is not contingent on Client's receipt of funds from any third party. Invoices unpaid after 14 days accrue interest at 1.5% per month, and Contractor may suspend work on 7 days' written notice while an invoice remains overdue. Fees are exclusive of applicable taxes, which Client pays in addition where it is required to collect or withhold them. Reasonable project expenses over 50 USD approved in writing in advance are reimbursed on production of receipts.

3. SCOPE, REVISIONS AND CHANGES

Schedule A lists each Deliverable with objective acceptance criteria. The fee includes 2 rounds of consolidated revisions per Deliverable. Either party may raise a written change request stating the effect on fee and schedule; a change takes effect on written acceptance, and work ordered before acceptance is charged at the hourly rate in Schedule B. Deliverables not rejected in writing within 10 business days with stated reasons are deemed accepted and the invoice falls due.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Title to each Deliverable passes to Client upon Client's receipt of payment in full for that Deliverable. Until then Client holds a licence to use the Deliverable for internal review. Contractor retains all right, title and interest in its pre-existing materials, templates, libraries and tooling ("Background IP") and grants Client a perpetual, non-exclusive, irrevocable licence to use Background IP as embedded in the Deliverables. Contractor's tools, source and working files are not Deliverables and may be provided as a separate paid service at the rates in Schedule B. Contractor may show reduced-resolution excerpts and the Client name in its portfolio, website and award entries after public launch. Contractor waives moral rights only to the extent necessary for Client to use the Deliverables as intended, and retains the right to be credited.

5. LIABILITY

Each party's total liability under this Agreement shall not exceed the fees paid or payable in the 12 months before the claim. Neither party is liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential or punitive loss, or for lost profits or revenue. Contractor indemnifies Client against third-party claims that the Deliverables infringe IP rights, provided Client gives prompt written notice and Contractor controls the defence, and excluding claims arising from Client's modifications, materials or use. Contractor maintains professional liability insurance with limits of at least the fees paid under this Agreement.

6. DELIVERY AND DELAY

Dates in Schedule A are agreed in good faith. Where Contractor anticipates a delay it shall notify Client promptly and the parties shall agree revised dates. Client's sole remedy for delay attributable to Contractor is to cancel the affected milestone and pay for work performed to that date.

7. TERM AND TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this Agreement on 30 days' written notice. On any termination Client pays for all work performed to the termination date and for non-cancellable commitments already made, and retains Deliverables only on payment. Renewal requires both parties' written agreement and rates are reviewed at each renewal.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidential Information means information disclosed in writing and marked confidential, or information a reasonable person would understand to be confidential. It excludes general skills, knowledge and experience retained by Contractor, information that becomes public without breach, and information already lawfully held. Obligations continue for 5 years after termination, and indefinitely only for information that is a genuine trade secret.

9. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

Neither party may assign this Agreement without the other's written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld. Disputes are first escalated to senior representatives of each party for 14 days, and failing resolution are decided by the courts of the jurisdiction in which Contractor is established, or by small-claims procedure where the sum in dispute is below its threshold. Either party may seek interim relief where a breach occurs.

10. GENERAL

This Agreement, together with its Schedules, is the entire agreement. Each party acts reasonably and in good faith in exercising any discretion given to it here. If any provision is unenforceable the remainder continues in effect.
